The Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Bill:

I want you to know what a pleasure it was for me to visit with you and how relieved I am to know that men of your quality are in our government. The demands of this book have kept me away from Washington, and it has been difficult for me to get as sound a sense of the thrust of our policy as I would have liked. Thus my visit with you was invaluable. I shall be done with this dratted book soon and will try to be out there much more often. I hope I can do some good.

In the meantime I am giving you a subscription to The American Spectator. It saddened me to note that my legal confidante was not receiving my favorite monthly. Let's visit again soon.

Yours faithfully,

STAT
